ARIES (3/21-4/19) NOV: The full Moon of the 3rd/4th promises to fill your coffers with bounty. Your partner is there to be lavished-on. The first 3 weeks are a time to work on your relationships, and the final 10 days are a time to do chores and tend to service needs. Attention to the car is best done on the 16th/17th. The 19th teaches the value of patience in a matter of love. If you heed what your higher mind would say, you can survive the 18th/19th weekend. Awareness of others will be the key this month. DEC: As Uranus continues its retrograde motion, it can dredge up knowledge from long ago. Currently, you are being readied for a new life direction. Much awareness and concern for others has been brought to your consciousness over the past 7 years. Now, with just a little more preparation, you will be ready to earn from all you have learned. This is an important month as you wind things down, review your prep work, and seek passion. The 6th and 27th are your best days.

TAURUS (4/20-5/20) NOV: You are very aware of earth changes. There have been many shake-ups on the planet from the August eclipse. Strangely, what affects the Earth can have an effect on the Taurus body. The 3rd/4th should be an example of this. Stay safe. Love is a healing balm and you need that miracle during the final 3 weeks this month. The 13th-16th is the best manifestation of this magic with another. Money can be drawn from the ethers. Keep plans secret. DEC: Changes this month are important and are now preparing you for some very erratic years to come. The 10th is tricky. Be extra careful in travels; don't be deceived by an illusion. Happy news arrives on the 15th. An inner excitement tickles on the 20th. There are open doors the final week. Door #1 holds a long journey. Door #2 is the means to begin a project. Door #3 is the drive to learn more. Choose wisely, my friend.

GEMINI (5/21-6/21) NOV: Clear up any health matters by the 5th. You need to be fit to deal with a happy change in a relationship. Your partner is quietly plodding along, but there is much stirring with them behind the scenes. Don't laugh when they present an old idea near month's end. You may find this idea to your liking as you break out the construction tools. This actually solves a slump you felt on the 13th. With high energy on the 17th, you attract romance if single, and add spice if married. Focus on others this month. DEC: Mercury stays Retrograde until the 22nd. This places a need to re-examine and repair all social damage you inadvertently caused. You shouldn't have to walk on eggshells, but some acquaintances are very sensitive. Partners seem rather quiet or missing in some way. The 6th is good to review and make changes. The 10th is high energy with friends. An important contact on the 12th leads to love on the 15th. All of these events will be replayed in January.

CANCER (6/22-7-22) NOV: The August eclipse will affect you in different ways over the next 2 years. It has left a slash to your self-esteem and a cut to old means of income. It tells you to look in new directions for your security. The full Moon of the 3rd/4th is about money and material matters. At the same time, romance becomes cemented in your life. For lonely Crabs, this 1st weekend can be a blessing for the whole month. Friends and lovers, that's your plate-load this month. DEC: Stay warm and dry as the month begins. There are several health issues lurking near your astral body. They can be kept at bay if you don't overwork. There could be a change to permanency in a relationship. There is a need to cull out some of your social involvements. Just do the ones that seem practical. The Full Moon of the 3rd underscores these social issues. Choose your words carefully all month. New plans take root around mid-month. Christmas is cheerful.

LEO (7/23-8/22) NOV: A benevolent light shines from the Full Moon of the 3rd. The day will be packed with action and the Moon becomes your flashlight that night, shining through the "debris". Make positive changes on the 9th if necessary. Try some natural healing methods on the 11th. The 13th is perfect for new additions at home. These first 3 weeks are challenging, but love lights your way the final 10 days. A higher expression of love is likely as Neptune turns forward in motion on the 22nd. DEC: The Sun moves through your house of love and creativity the first 3 weeks, then you settle into a pleasant holiday calmness, sipping your eggnog by a warming fireplace. This is your work season. Health practices need looking at, but you can put that off. Finish your eggnog first. Aren't friends a glorious thing? The 3rd/4th has a Full Moon to prove that you could have a "Judas" among your friends. Enjoy a happy traditional holiday season.

VIRGO (8/23-9/22) NOV: You find yourself wrapping up any travel or communication efforts by the 5th. The full Moon of the 3rd/4th could be the perfect ending to a glorious vacation or short getaway. Don't let ghosts from the past ruin the 13th. Tell them Mondays are bad enough without this. The 16th could be a time of costly repairs. Get another quote and listen to a friend's advice that day. The New Moon of the 18th will stir the mix in your subconscious to bring hidden treasures to mind. The 27th is productive. DEC: Mercury as your sign ruler, goes Retrograde for the 4th time this year. It is teaching us all to stay grounded in our spiritual beliefs. As a material Sign, you have been shown the divine roots of all material concerns. You may even seek the pure source of physical pleasure. Those Virgoans who take this "lesson of the year" to heart will experience higher self-esteem and earn more. Home is a focus this month, as you literally turn your physical home into a spiritual sanctuary for Christmas. Did you catch the Mercury lesson there?

LIBRA (9/23-10/22) NOV: Times alone are not a bad thing for the female Scales, but things feel off-balance to Libra males. There seems to be a problem with false information on the 3rd. There are pots of gold along your path from the 7th onward. Finally, the imbalance to your finances begins to tilt in your favor. The 13th you're your cup runneth over. You are boosted, and more attractive as the 16th shows. The 21st can add to you money magnetism. Now, you can finally buy for your home. DEC: You may have to take over the reins of the sleigh while your partner is disengaged in some way. Life will be great if you can just get through the first 10 days. There is confusion on the 10th, but you are the one to sort through that for others. Listen to your intuition on the 15th. The 20th is perfect to re-connect with old friends. You seem to become the spirit of Christmas on that evening. I see gold and gemstones for you on the 25th.

SCORPIO (10/23-11/22) NOV: The first weekend finds you out with a partner, dancing in the Full Moonlight as love adds a soft filter to that light. There can be an element of danger if you get too extreme this month. After that, you may feel an energy drop. This is designed to slow you enough to reflect on where your energy goes. The 19th will be very revealing in this regard. Change on the 7th will be there through month's end to soften your intensity with a feeling of love. The 9th is nice, and the 13th is uncomfortably lovely. Love is your savior. DEC: Christmas always fires you up to decorate, cook goodies, and laugh it up. That's great. Let those we legally elected run the show, sometimes. Basically, you need feel no connection to world issues. It doesn't affect your life, or does it in some subtle manner? The 2nd is a dream-state kind of day. Part of this month is perfect for vacation. Income is down through the 22nd. At least Jupiter protects and blesses your Sign.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/20) NOV: You have a 3-week period to mine for the gold within you. Actually, the year ahead has you happily rummaging through your mind, finding treasures from long ago. There is a positive spirit whispering in your ear over the next year. Don't listen to any negative messages. Those are false. The 13th can be like a treasure map. Be sure to act on those promptings. On the 21st, it becomes easier to apply and build on these messages. You are no more crazy than usual. Your angel is real. DEC: Jupiter (your sign ruler) is taking you to some strange, but happy places since mid-October. You are the happy prospector of your own subconscious. You have learned how to go there and at times there are dreams and other symbols to enlighten. There is great value to your alone time for several more months. The hidden factor you discover will help to close out a yearlong cycle. This journey will lead to happier times.

CAPRICORN (12/21-1/19) NOV: Saturn moves slowly, like an old man, toward your Sign. 2 ½ years of trouble and suffering is ending. Fortunately, struggle seems normal to your karma-laden Sign. Soon your plans will bring you to a place of constructive glee. Some Seagoats will have to wait longer than others, but energy flows better for all Caps for the next 2 ½ years, as the outer tips of Saturn's rings energize your Sign with sparks of hope and determination. Be ready. DEC: There are good reasons why this holiday season has many folks in a contemplative mode. You may wonder what has happened to American traditions and it feels sad. This is a month of concern for others and the desire to assist becomes pronounced. A tone of true love creates positive action on the 6th. Community will mean more than state's rights. You and all of us need to be more rugged and self-reliant for a while.

AQUARIUS (1/20-2/18) NOV: Life itself would probably stagnate if not for the Aquarians who mix and stir us well with their antics. You never meant to stir up trouble; your goal is to blend people together with you. Get consent first. The Full Moon brings up this point. The 3rd also brings an awareness of mankind's deep commonality. Stop blending and start mending. It's never ending...how we all need tending. You can be a constructive dynamo in these ways. Props to you on the 25th. DEC: Life has its delays for Aquarians in the case of this energetic Sign. It can, however, be good when your ruling planet is Retrograde. It gives the rest of us time to catch up to you. You give others a lot to think about, but from early August through year's end, it is your turn for deep thinking. Guard yourself on the 1st, remember old teachings on the 10th, burn energy on the 16th, and find peace and love on the 20th. Real progress returns to start 2018.

PISCES (2/19-3/20) NOV: Long have we drifted through space and you must wonder, sometimes, what it all means. Einstein was a Pisces, and I believe his mind was in tune with the Universe. Your mind is due for a tuning and the Full Moon does that on the 3rd/4th. We all get this yearly tune up. It just happens to be your month. The 16th leaves only a pure and shining person for the world to see. Your suitors may have to take a number. The 22nd sees Neptune go direct. This forward motion gives you time to pause before entering your next fogbank. DEC: You have a huge load of joy to start the month. It becomes the old adage of: "Too much of a good thing." So, the caution is to save you from the consequences, which could arise with the Full Moon on the 3rd/4th. Just keep it low-key on the 2nd. The 10th can be reputation damaging. It's a good thing you have the power to mesmerize others with those eyes. Peace arrives in time to end the year happily, active, and strong.
